DEPARTMENTAL LIBRARY

In addition to central Library, Computer Science Department has own Library catering to the needs of faculty and students. The library is equipped with 170+ books which covers important titles, programming books, books for competitive exams, project reports, etc. Students and staff are advised to fully utilize these books for further enhancement of their subject knowledge.

The objective of departmental library is to promote the use of reference books among the students. All the students in the department and faculty utilize the books in the library for their study.

HOD and faculty incharge controls the functionality of department Library.
