REPORT

A report on the Gurupurab celebration organized by SSBES' Institute of Technology and Management. As part of our commitment to cultural and religious diversity, we held a commemorative event on 04th November 2017 to observe the birth anniversary of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, the founder of Sikhism.

Introduction:

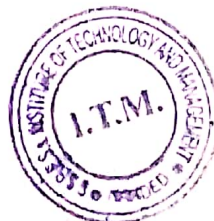

The Gurupurab celebration was organized with the aim of promoting interfaith harmony, cultural understanding, and religious tolerance within our institution. The event served as an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff members to come together and gain insights into the teachings and philosophy of Guru Nanak Dev Ji.

Objective:

The primary objective of the Gurupurab celebration was to create awareness about Sikhism, its principles, and the contributions of Guru Nanak Dev Ji. The event aimed to foster an inclusive environment where individuals from diverse backgrounds could learn and appreciate different faiths and beliefs.

Event Highlights:

- Religious Observances: The celebration began with the recitation of the Sikh prayer, followed by the singing of hymns (Kirtan) and spiritual discourses (Katha) to enlighten the audience about Guru Nanak Dev Ji's life and teachings.
- Guest Speaker: We invited a prominent Sikh scholar who delivered an insightful lecture on the relevance of Guru Nanak Dev Ji's teachings in today's world, emphasizing the values of equality, compassion, and social justice.
- Langar: A traditional Langar, a community meal, was organized, symbolizing the spirit of equality and sharing. Volunteers from the Sikh community and our institution worked together to prepare and serve a vegetarian meal to all attendees.

Participation and Engagement:

The Gurupurab celebration witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff members. The event provided a platform for students to actively engage in various activities such as reciting shabads (hymns), volunteering in the Langar, and showcasing their artistic skills during the cultural performances.

Impact and Feedback:

The Gurupurab celebration received positive feedback from attendees, highlighting the event's success in fostering interfaith dialogue, cultural understanding, and communal harmony. Participants expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to learn about Sikhism and Guru Nanak Dev Ji's teachings, which broadened their knowledge and understanding of different religious traditions.

The Gurupurab celebration organized by SSBES' Institute of Technology and Management successfully achieved its objectives of promoting cultural diversity, interfaith harmony, and communal bonding. The event not only provided an enriching experience for participants but also highlighted our institution's commitment to fostering a pluralistic environment that respects and celebrates religious diversity.
